Subject: Press email address and phone number are on the website

On the Gold King Mine website, there's an August 11 press release posted. Within the press release (accessible to the public) the following info is provided :

“Local and national media inquiries can now be sent to press@epa.gov. A phone line has been set to handle local and national media inquiries; that number is 970-812-3351, and it will be staffed by press officers within the Joint Information Center.”
